

A SALUTE
TO WOMEN OF
SOUTH AFRICA

NOW YOU HAVE TOUCHED
THE WOMEN YOU HAVE STRUCK A ROCK. YOU HAVE
DISLODGED A BOULDER.
YOU WILL BE CRUSHED.

1956-1986
WOMEN
MARCHING

... PROTEST SONG SUNG BY
THE 30 000 WOMEN WHO MARCHED TO PRETORIA TO PROTEST AGAINST PASSES
BEING ISSUED TO WOMEN IN 1956.

Apartheid is the most vicious and inhuman form of racism existing in the world today. It denies Black people all basic rights.

It is Black women in Namibia and South Africa who suffer most from apartheid. They are denied education, jobs, decent wages, housing, health care, while white people enjoy one of the highest standards of living in the world. People are imprisoned if they dare to challenge this injustice. Since the State of Emergency was redeclared, women have been the particular target for arrest.

But Black women are fighting back! Despite harassment, detention and torture, forced removals, evictions and attacks, women are strong in their resistance! The Botha regime is revealing how scared it is of women's fight against apartheid by its attempts to stop them.

Remember Botha: now you have touched the women you have struck a rock. You have dislodged a boulder - you will be crushed!

Join the women of Namibia and South Africa on their march for freedom! Join the call for effective economic sanctions now against the Pretoria regime! Join the Anti-Apartheid Movement!
