

NO

ARMS FOR

VERWOERD

SUNDAY 3rd JUNE

Trafalgar Square, 3 p.m.

Sherif GUELLAL (Algerian Ambassador Designate)

Anthony WEDGWOOD BENN

Moses MABIDA (South African Trades Unionist)

Rosamond JOHN

Manuela SYKES

Fenner BROCKWAY, M.P.

Anti-Apartheid Movement,
15 Endsleigh Str., W.C.1.

25
LIKE a battlefield. . . . Some of the 56 Africans killed and 162 wounded sprawled in a street after police had opened fire with rifles and Sten guns at Sharpeville, near Johannesburg, South Africa, yesterday.
Women and children were among the victims.

South Africa 1960

1962 - Out of the Commonwealth, but Britain still supplies arms.