NEW RACIST INVASION OF ANGOLA

On 23 August 1981 a massive force of South Africans crossed from Namibia into Angola. For a year they have been occupying large tracts of southern Angola.

Now, operating both from this area and from Namibia, which it also illegally occupies in defiance of international law, South Africa has launched a new invasion. The aim is to move north in an attempt to repeat its invasion of 1975/6, when its forces reached to within 150 miles of the Angolan capital Luanda.

South Africa has once again shown its complete contempt for the sovereignty of African states. In particular the new invasion appears aimed at sabotaging a new series of talks intended to secure an end to South Africa's illegal occupation of Namibia.

What has been the response of Britain, the United States, and other major western powers to South Africa's aggression and the Namibian people's struggle for self-determination? What are they doing to get South African troops out of Angola and Namibia? Strangely all their attention is focussed not on the South African forces but on the Cubans in Angola who came at the invitation of the Angolan Government to help repel the 1975/6 South African invasion. It is now said that the independence of Namibia has to be "linked" to the withdrawal of Cuban forces from Angola! The United States in particular appears to almost incite the South Africans into blocking a settlement in Namibia by advocating such "linkage", and last September gave the South Africans the 'green light' to continue their invasion of Angola by vetoing a UN Security Council resolution.

But other western powers are also guilty. They have repeatedly blocked measures, including sanctions, designed to compel South Africa to end its illegal occupation of Namibia.

All who oppose apartheid and support the struggle for African freedom are urged to mobilise for:

- * SOLIDARITY WITH ANGOLA AND WITH SWAPO, THE NAMIBIAN LIBERATION MOVEMENT!
- * SOUTH AFRICAN TROOPS OUT OF ANGOLA AND NAMIBIA!
- * ISOLATE APARTHEID SOUTH AFRICA!
