Dear Customer,

Yes, we've moved! And we now have a shop where you can make your selection from the best that the struggle for freedom in Southern Africa has to offer.

Under an agreement between ourselves and the International Defence and Aid Fund for Southern Africa (IDAF), we are now managing the IDAF Bookcentre at 64 Essex Road, London N1. IDAF itself, at last unbanned by the South African government, is transferring its legal aid and defence work to South Africa, where it will be taken over by local organisations.

We are delighted that the IDAF Bookcentre will continue to serve the Southern African solidarity movement at a time of great changes in the region. Our normal mail order and wholesale supply services, and other activities in support of the Anti-Apartheid Movement, will carry on alongside.

Today, the work of the Anti-Apartheid Movement is more important than ever as a united, non-racial, democratic South Africa struggles to emerge from the wreckage of apartheid. We at AA Enterprises look forward to continued trading in support of the free and independent countries of the region, and the search for peace, freedom and justice.

With best wishes
