

ANTI-APARTHEID MOVEMENT SAYS :

TELL DE KLERK : STOP THE VIOLENCE AND REPRESSION

Nearly a year has passed since Nelson Mandela was released after 27 years imprisonment. Yet South Africa's most famous leader still cannot vote in his own country.

President De Klerk promises a 'new South Africa' - but apartheid still denies basic human rights to 4 out of 5 South Africans.

Negotiations to end apartheid and establish basic human rights for all South Africans have not even started yet - because of two main obstacles : repression and violence.

The Anti-Apartheid Movement calls on De Klerk to take action to remove these obstacles to a peaceful settlement.

STOP THE VIOLENCE AND REPRESSION!

STOP THE REPRESSION !

- Thousands of political prisoners and detainees still languish in apartheid's jails - including 50 on Death Row
- Tens of thousands of political exiles cannot return home for fear of being prosecuted for opposing apartheid
- Repressive laws make free political activity impossible - especially the notorious Internal Security Act.

De Klerk has not kept his promises to solve these problems have not been fulfilled. If he does not remove these obstacles by 30 April 1991, the ANC could find itself obliged to pull out of the negotiation process.

STOP THE VIOLENCE !

De Klerk's regime has orchestrated the appalling violence which has caused over 3,000 deaths in the past year. His police have promoted and condoned the so-called 'black-on-black' violence.

De Klerk has been talking peace whilst making war. He wants a negotiated settlement - but only on his terms. He is trying to undermine the ANC and other democratic forces. But the violence is endangering the prospects for peace, freedom and an end to apartheid.

YOU can help get the peace process back on course - by sending this message to De Klerk, and asking the British government to do the same.
