

WHO CARES?

WHO CARES that 80% of all urban African families in South Africa live below the breadline that 1,000 Africans are arrested every day under the pass laws that African workers are not admitted to skilled jobs, and have no right to to improve their working conditions that the opponents of racialism are kept in solitary confinement, for months on end, and torture is used to extract confessions.

WHO CARES ABOUT APARTHEID

If you care, and want to help the world-wide campaign to end Apartheid,

JOIN THE ANTI APARTHEID MOVEMENT

The Anti Apartheid Movement campaigns for the release of all South African political prisoners an embargo on the supply of arms to the Apartheid Republic

British support for a United Nations programme of economic sanctions against South Africa

To the Anti Apartheid Movement, 89 Charlotte Street, London, W.1.

Please send me further information about the Anti Apartheid Movement.

I wish to join the Anti Apartheid Movement and enclose.....
(minimum subscription 10/-, full-time students, 5/- per year)

Name..... Address.....

..... Date.....

I am a Student at.....