HYDE PARK
SUNDAY 17 JULY 1988

Why you should be there!

● To celebrate Nelson Mandela's Birthday

On 18 July, Nelson Mandela will be 70 years old.

● To express solidarity with Nelson Mandela

Mandela and his co-accused have been imprisoned for over 25 years for seeking to overthrow the system of apartheid — a system declared by the United Nations to be a 'crime against humanity'.

● To welcome the Nelson Mandela Freedom Marchers

The 25 Freedom Marchers, one for each year of Mandela's imprisonment, will arrive in Hyde Park having marched 590 miles from Glasgow to London to highlight the campaign for the release of Mandela and all South African and Namibian political prisoners.

● To participate in a unique Anti-Apartheid Movement Rally

With speakers including Archbishop Tutu, as well as special musical and artistic contributions.

● To say — Free Nelson Mandela!

— If you were one of the millions of people throughout Britain who watched the Wembley Tribute which launched the campaign;

— If you have supported the March as it has gone down the country;

— If you support the call for the release of Mandela;

Then be sure to be there in Hyde Park for the culmination of the campaign.

Let P. W. Botha — Let Margaret Thatcher — Let the whole world see Hyde Park overflowing with people saying with one united voice — Free Nelson Mandela!
