

SOUTHERN AFRICA in the 1980s

one-day conference
to mobilise world support for liberation in southern africa

TUESDAY 26 JUNE 1979

9.30 am - 5.30 pm

at the

INTERNATIONAL COFFEE ORGANISATION
22 Berners Street, London W1

Organised by the Anti-Apartheid Movement

26 June 1979, South Africa Freedom Day, will also mark the 20th anniversary of the founding of the Anti-Apartheid Movement. The highlight of the activities being organised to mark the occasion will be a one-day conference, which will be attended by individuals and representatives of organisations concerned about the situation in Southern Africa, including those who have contributed to the work of the Anti-Apartheid Movement during the past two decades.

The themes of the Conference will be:

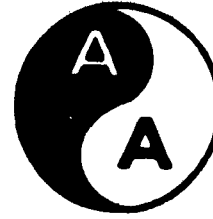

- a survey of the development of British and international solidarity with the freedom struggle in Southern Africa
- the current stage of the liberation struggle in Southern Africa
- the requirements for the further advancement of international solidarity at this stage in the liberation struggle in Southern Africa
- the issues, tasks and policies for the Anti-Apartheid Movement arising from the present international political situation.

Speakers have been invited to make keynote speeches on these themes, and background documentation is being prepared for the participants.

The Conference will take place at:

The Conference Room
International Coffee Organisation
22 Berners Street, London W1.

There will be a registration fee of £1.

Among those who have agreed to participate in the Conference are:

- Oliver Tambo, President of the African National Congress of South Africa
- E S Reddy, Director of the UN Centre Against Apartheid
- Rt Hon David Steel MP, Leader of the Liberal Party and former President of the Anti-Apartheid Movement
- Joan Lester MP, Chairman of the Labour Party International Committee and Vice President of the Anti-Apartheid Movement
