To the Honourable the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland in Parliament assembled The humble Petition of residents of the United Kingdom sheweth That they are opposed to apartheid and greatly concerned at:

1. the denial of democratic rights to the majority population of South Africa 2. the repression as shown by the number of killings, the number of people detained without trial, and the declaration of a State of Emergency; and 3. South Africa's illegal occupation of Namibia

Wherefore your petitioners pray that your honourable House will pass legislation to impose sanctions against apartheld South Africa.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray &c.
