“Our children are dying, our land is burning and bleeding. I call on you, the people of Britain, in God’s name to appeal to your Government to apply sanctions against this evil system of apartheid.”

Bishop Desmond Tutu, May 1986

- Over 1600 people have been killed in South Africa in the past 18 months.
- Over 15,000 have been detained.
- All meetings, even church services, to commemorate the Soweto uprising have been banned.
- South Africa maintains with great brutality its illegal occupation of neighbouring Namibia.
- Apartheid’s war against Africa is being stepped up. On 19th May the South African military attacked the capital cities of three Commonwealth countries.

ON 23rd MAY BRITAIN AGAIN USED ITS VETO IN THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL TO PROTECT SOUTH AFRICA FROM SANCTIONS. DON’T LET IT HAPPEN AGAIN.
