NELSON MANDELA

TRIBUTE SCULPTURE

Artist Allison Barrett made this sculpture as a tribute to Nelson Mandela on the historic occasion of his release from prison in 1990.

"For many years I wondered what he must look like, and when I saw the pictures of him walking from the prison I was captivated by his face and compelled to make this sculpture."

The head is 8 inches high. A portion of the proceeds made from the sale of the heads will go to the Nelson Mandela Children's Fund.

A limited edition of these heads are for sale, cast in plaster of paris and cement fondue with a bronze finish, resting on a polished hard wood base. An engraved plaque can also be mounted. A limited edition of 10 in bronze will also be available.
