RHODESIA

1965: Harold Wilson —

"At this anxious hour I hope that no one in Rhodesia will feel that Britain has forgotten them or that we are prepared to yield up the trusteeship which is ours — trusteeship for the welfare of all the peoples of Rhodesia. Whatever the cost to us we shall honour that trusteeship . . ."

TODAY:—

Despite this promise, constitutional proposals which will entrench white minority rule and escalate the conflict in Southern Africa, are being negotiated with the Smith regime. Four million Africans are being abandoned to apartheid. South African troops and Smith's forces are together fighting African freedom fighters.

We demand:

- No independence before majority African rule
- No agreement with the minority racist regime
- Release of all political prisoners
- Expulsion of South African troops from Rhodesia
