

What kind of things are wrong in the world?

International issues These are issues which affect everyone, everywhere	National issues These are issues which affect a particular country	Regional issues These are issues which affect people in some areas of a country	Local issues These are issues which affect people in your town or village